I SEE BY THE PAPERS

Some years ago the benefactions and gifts made by John D. Rockefeller on the basis of known records (and excluding the dimes) had amounted to $750,000,000. Evidence so large an amount of Rockefeller wealth is still retained is furnished by the securities and exchange commission, which is required by law to publish the individual holdings exceeding 10 per cent of the stock of any corporation. In accordance with this provision the commission has reported John D. Rockefeller, Jr., owns stock with an aggregate value of $250,000,000 at present market prices, in three big companies—Standard Oil of California, Standard Oil of New Jersey and Socony-Vacuum Company (formerly Standard Oil of New York). These holdings represent respectively 14 per cent, 11 per cent and 18 per cent of the total stock of these three companies. The Rockefeller annual income from current dividends on these three stocks exceeds $8,000,000 a year. They probably reflect only a segment of the Rockefeller wealth and income remaining after all the hundreds of millions that have been used to endow enterprises for the welfare of the world.

The elder John D. Rockefeller, and his son after him, might just as well make humanitarian use of their vast fortune while here. There is no pocket in a shroud—

Down in Los Angeles, Adoree Neville, stunt flyer, who once fell 3000 feet from a plane and landed uninjured, is in a hospital suffering a broken nose and other injuries sustained when her bed in a Hollywood hotel collapsed. And in the same hospital is Mrs. Ulysses Grant McQueen, president of the Women's Aeronautical Association and conqueror of Alaskan mountain ranges by airplane, who is laid up with a broken ankle sustained when she stumbled while walking in her backyard garden.

These instances go to the point only of proving nothing at all, but they likely will bolster up the argument of those who contend one cannot escape what is predestined——

Representative Dunn of Pennsylvania, impatient at half-way measures, has introduced into congress a bill calling for the expenditure of $100,000,000,000 in the next 10 years to "furnish employment and to end poverty in the United States." The money is to be expended for slum clearance; purchase of railroads and other utilities by the federal government, states and municipalities; flood control, elimination of grade crossings, highway construction, reforestation, hospitals, schools and other purposes. No person employed under this program would be permitted to work more than six hours a day or five days a week and would be guaranteed a minimum wage of $1 an hour.

The chief characteristic of this bill is its restraint. It contains no clause indicating where the hundred billion would come from——

The recent crack by Eddie Cantor that if he were a girl he would not let a boy friend drive with one hand on the steering wheel and the other around her waist is in accord with the belief of William Collins, head of the Cook county highway police in Illinois, that neckers and naggers cause more traffic accidents than do drunken drivers. Engaged couples, he said, indulge in the traditional byplay of engaged couples as they drive along the road. Being thus occupied, they fail to watch their driving closely. Presently—bang! And there's another smash-up. With married couples it often works the other way. They quarrel, as married folk occasionally do, get all trapped up in their quarrel, forget about the hazards of traffic — and, again, there's another smash-up on the highways.

COVELO YOUTH IS JAILED ON MURDER CLUES

Leroy Duncan, Round Valley Indian, 19, Is Accused

A FIGHT OVER LIQUOR

Carousal Ends In Unexplained Killing At Geyserville

A puzzling murder mystery which confronts Conoma county officers with finding of the battered body of Charles Manuel, 46, Geyserville Indian ranch worker, in a shallow ditch near the Frazee ranch, a mile west of Santa Rosa, was believed solved with arrest of Leroy Duncan, 19, a Covelo Indian, on an open charge.

Said He Fought.

Young Duncan, grilled for hours by Sheriff Harry L. Patteson and deputies, finally admitted he fought with Chas. Manuel near the spot the body was found. He denied emphatically, however, he had thrown the victim into the ditch. Suspicion was directed to Leroy Duncan when officers noted his left fist was badly bruised and swollen.

Drinking Admitted.

The youth, native of the Covelo reservation in Round Valley, Mendocino county, was with Pedro Luna, local Indian boxer and two other Indians when Manuel's body was "found" shortly before noon. He at first denied he knew the dead man, or that he had ever seen him before. Later Leroy Duncan, Pedro Luna and nine other Indians, including several women who admitted they had been on a drinking spree and joyride with Charlie Manuel Wednesday night, were rounded up and taken to the Sonoma county jail

EDITORIAL HAD A HIGH RATING

From Los Angeles last week came word from the State Editorial Association that in a recent contest of the best editorials in California for the past year the anti-Communist editorial printed in The Republican Press last year, which resulted in Judge W. D. L. Held being forced to retire Frank Knacke from the appointed position of probation officer, was rated 96 per cent on a 100 percentage basis competition. In point of "effectiveness and holding reader interest" The Republican Press editorial was close to the top.

REQUEST FOR DATA BRINGS MEETING HERE

Conservation Gathering Scheduled For Ukiah Feb. 26

MANY WILL ATTEND

Protection Of Forests Against Fires Will Be Main Issue

Fire protection needs for the north coast area will be outlined at a conference in Ukiah February 26, sponsored by the conservation committee of the California State Chamber of Commerce. Federal and state forestry officials, the director of the state department of natural resources and PWA representatives will participate in the meeting.

Wants Full Data.

The Public Works Administration has asked the state chamber for an inventory of fire protection needs in the north coast district, and the conference has been arranged for that purpose, state chamber leaders explained. Interested groups in all communities have been asked to bring suggestions for additional protection and improvements such as ranger stations, lookout towers, truck equipment, additional fire trails and similar fire protection facilities.

New Branch Of Public Work.

A complete program of fire protection needs will be worked out by the conservation leaders, forestry officials and natural resource department spokesmen, and will then be proposed for consideration under PWA funds. The conservation work has been taken up as a new branch of the PWA, and north coast civic leaders are anxious to benefit under the set-up as much as possible.

Meet At Palace Hotel.

The meeting will be held at The Palace Hotel, Ukiah, starting at 10 o'clock Tuesday, February 26.

"So the People May Know"

There has come to the publisher of this newspaper a communication from Harry E. Speas, who is seeking a permit for a bus line across the Golden Gate Bridge. In the letter Mr. Speas says The Republican Press misstated his position and asks his explanation "be given equal prominence with that of the article complained of."

"I take it, your reference to Golden Gate Ferry is meant to apply to me." Mr. Speas writes. It is only fair to say such was the intention of the writer.

The letter of Mr. Speas follows:

Bridge Bus Lines Corporation,
San Francisco, Feb. 16, 1935.

Mr. A. R. O'Brien, Editor
Ukiah Republican Press.
Dear Sir:

In your issue of February 13, under the caption "So The People May Know" you make the following statement:

> "An elaborate staff of lawyers, high-pressure come-on men and reams of publicity are the means being employed in San Francisco by certain interests to create a sentiment among directors of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, an exclusive franchise should be given by the directors for the operation of busses over the Golden Gate Bridge."

You have a reputation of being fair and I am sure you would not intentionally do me an injustice. We are the only applicant, thus far, and I am the only one formerly connected with the Golden Gate Ferry who is in any manner connected with this proposed bus company. There are no "high-pressure come-on" men employed by this company and we have not asked for an exclusive permit. The directors of the district have no legal right to grant an exclusive permit. I am reliably so informed. That power rests only with the State Railroad Commission. Any reputable and law-abiding person, firm, or corporation shall have the right to operate over the bridge by paying the required tolls.

Your work as a director of the bridge district has been notable indeed and if you believe the Marin-San Francisco traffic problem can best be solved with light-weight surface cars that, of course, is your privilege to so think.

But you must consider the cost of such a system, with proper terminals into the down-town section of San Francisco. The line would cost at least $12,000,000 (this has been checked by a competent railroad expert). The investment necessary, together with the comparatively small population north of the bridge argues in favor of a modern motor coach system. The economics of transportation throw the cost upon the consumer or rider; therefore, it is fundamental that a $2,000,000 coach company can give a lower rate and consequently better service than a $12,000,000 rail line.

I am not a promoter in any sense nor is any person connected with this organization. We are not asking the public to pay anything except a reasonable fare; not interest and amortization charges on unreasonable investments.

I take it your references to Golden Gate Ferry is meant to apply to me. I organized the company and for 10 years operated it for the convenience of the people. In 1925, I lost financial control and the merger was effected in 1929. I was not even a director of Golden Gate Ferries, Inc., at the time of the merger, and did not in any way control or direct the policies of the company. However the facts are that I did not sell out, and after all, the original Golden Gate Ferry did a big thing in the reconstruction of transportation conditions across San Francisco Bay.

The proposed bus line can be taken over at any time by the Bridge District, the State of California, the City of San Francisco, or a transportation district; and, further, we pledge a corporate set-up which will make it incumbent upon our successors or assigns to give a certain and definite schedule of service and tariffs.

We are not asking for a bond issue to be voted on or any new fangled system of taxation cleverly disguised under some other name. We are not asking the people to pay anything other than a fair tariff which will, in the final analysis, be fixed by the State Railroad Commission.

My work for the passage of the Golden Gate Bridge Bonds and subsequent activity should convince you that I am sincere. May I ask you to give my statement the same prominence which was given to your own article?

Very truly yours,

HARRY E. SPEAS,
Vice-Pres. & General Manager
Bridge Bus Lines Corporation

DOS RIOS MAN CHARGED WITH CAUSING A WRECK—WAS DRUNK?

Local Woman Badly Injured—Offender Is In Jail

An accident, which Traffic Officer Chas. Ciancio investigated, happened near Calpella Sunday evening in which Ward Young, of Dos Rios, allegedly under the influence of liquor, so badly wrecked his own machine as to cause it to burst into flames and be destroyed, also damaged a car being driven by Richard F. Carter and belonging to Charles Rovera.

Woman Severely Hurt.

In the Rovera car were Mrs. Josephine Binner and small daughter, Edna, and Mr. Carter and his brother. The accident happened on Comino hill. Mrs. Binner was very badly cut about the face and was treated at Ukiah General Hospital. It is feared she will be permanently disfigured; the driver, who was accompanied by his brother, Arthur Carter, was only slightly injured.

Is In Jail.

Ward Young was arrested by Officer Ciancio and is in the county jail.

CHAMBER WILL BEGIN SURVEY

The Chamber of Commerce this week starts a complete survey of the modernization and housing needs of Ukiah and, as soon as it is completed, a report will be provided the public.

LOOKING AFTER BUYING

Harry Shimmin, who so well handles the interests of the Ukiah Farmers' Club, was in San Francisco several days the past week looking after matters connected with spring order placing for the big independent concern he heads.

SPENT LARGE AMOUNT WITH A NEWSPAPER

Lieurance Paid The Press $25 Weekly For 10 Years

GOT FINEST RESULTS

Record Likely Held By A Small Town Weekly Paper

LAST TO QUIT

Lieurance Stores, Inc., were organized and controlled by the late H. E. Lieurance. The Ukiah store opened in 1925. In 1927 the Santa Rosa store was started and that at Petaluma began business in 1929. H. E. Lieurance controlled all three stores. The Ukiah store was the last to close and the balance of the stock was sold yesterday to C. J. Kelley, of Berkeley.

In checking over the books of Lieurance Stores, Inc., which last week retired from business in Ukiah, Rex Lieurance stated he observed the Lieurance Stores had been consistent advertisers in The Republican Press.

Spent Large Sum.

Throughout the 10 years Lieurance Stores operated here their advertising in The Republican Press averaged $25.00 a week, as the total sum paid The Republican Press by Lieuance Stores, Inc., ran to slightly more than $100 a month throughout the 10 years they were here.

STROKE TOOK A FATAL TNRN

J. Cunningham, Robinson Creek Rancher, Fails To Rally

John Cunningham, who has resided in Ukiah a number of years and who suffered a stroke of paralysis 10 days ago on his ranch on Robinson creek, died here Saturday last and was buried from Eversole's Mortuary yesterday afternoon, interment being in the local cemetery.

Native Of England.

Mr. Cunningham was a native of England. He was a man of exceptionally broad information. He had traveled much and read a great deal and he always had something of interest to say on almost any topic that came up. With Mrs. Cunningham, who in her earlier life had been a nurse in a London hospital, Mr. Cunningham came here several years ago and later acquired a ranch on Robinson creek. About five years ago Mrs. Cunningham died and soon afterward Mr. Cunningham moved to Robinson creek where he has since made his home. Deceased was a man of strict integrity and the friends he made he retained.

Car Deliveries Are Not Being Delayed

George Vevoda, head of Vevoda Motor Sales, was looking after automobile deliveries in the city a number of days. Mr. Vevoda states that, although Ukiah sales have been greater so far this year than for a number of seasons past, he is not encountering any delay in making deliveries of Chevrolet and Oldsmobile cars for customers.

BUYS A PLYMOUTH

Mrs. Ben Foster has placed an order with Distributor W. G. Cox for a Plymouth automobile, which will be delivered in a short time.

IS KEPT BUSY

Senator and Mrs. Geo. M. Biggar were here Thursday. Senator Biggar's time is much taken up these days by calls made upon him to deliver talks before civic organizations which are anxious to have the author of the Biggar bill explain the workings of his measure which would take all county roads into the state highway system.

EDITOR OF REDWOOD JOURNAL AND WIFE WERE PUT IN JAIL

BUSINESS SUSPENDS

Business houses in Ukiah will not be open February 22 and the occasion, according to the Chamber of Commerce, will be observed as a holiday.

STRANGE WAY TO RECOVERY WAS ADOPTED

A Government Agent Orders 100 Hogs Killed-Buried

NATIVES GO HUNGRY

Why Not Feed People Instead Of Letting The Meat Rot?

There comes to The Republican Press a story which, seemingly correct in every way, is certainly a sorry illustration of the back-to-prosperity plan. It seems a government man representing hog control went to a farming community in Mendocino county not long ago and found a rancher with more than the number of hogs he had agreed to raise.

Made A Suggestion.

The visiting official issued an order something more than 100 hogs were to be killed at once. The owner of the hogs, who was to be reimbursed by the government, was not opposed to the slaughter of the hogs but suggested that, as there were many Indians in that part of the county who were in actual need of food, it might be best to kill the hogs, whose average weight was 45 pounds, and turn them over to the natives for food. This the agent of the government would not consent to and insisted the porkers should be put out of the way and buried. His plan, because of the authority he had, was not opposed and was followed.

Why Do This?

Just what purpose was served by this very foolish plan is hard to establish. By what line of reasoning the agent arrived at the conclusion it was better to bury the hogs than feed them to hungry people is something that will require a great deal of explanation here, where everyone knows the Indians are in real want.

Fall Off Here.

One of the leading butchers of Ukiah stated his firm formerly butchered about 50 hogs a week but that, since the government had taken over the curtailment of hog raising, the number killed had fallen to six or seven a week.

Have Gotten $10,000.

Inquiry at the local Farm Bureau office through which office the checks are cleared developed the fact a second payment of $4000 had lately been received in the office for farmers who had curtailed hog raising. The ranchers are paid $2.00 a head for hogs they do not raise and a former payment which ran to about $6000 was distributed hereabouts.

Difference Is Seen.

While hogs are being killed here and buried as natives stand by hungry and the farmer is being paid $2.00 for each hog, under the curtailment plan he does not raise, the hog market in Chicago reached the highest points touched since March, 1931, at the Chicago stock yards last week. A top of $8.50 per hundredweight was paid. Limited supplies were responsible for the rise.

Several Are Seeking The Store Location

Two outside concerns and L. H. Foster are reported to be endeavoring to obtain a lease on the Hildreth building which is now under lease to Lieurance Stores, Inc. The latter has several months lease yet to run on the premises and also own the fixtures in the building. Just what the outcome will be is uncertain.

Sol Cohen was in Lake county Wednesday.

Drunkenness Charged By The Arresting City Officers

Ray E. Newland and wife were arrested by Officers Shortridge and Elledge Sunday night on charges of being drunk and disorderly. Mr. Newland is editor of The Redwood Journal and has been in trouble with the police on like charges before.

In Jail—In Infirmary.

The pair after being arrested were separated, Mr. Newland being put in jail and Mrs. Newland being sent to the county infirmary, there being no local provision for the care of women prisoners.

The Charges Preferred.

Inquiry at the office of City Magistrate P. W. Handy brought out the fact both Mr. and Mrs. Newland were charged with disturbing the peace. The last time Mr. Newland was drunk and disorderly and appeared before Judge Handy he was fined 15.00.

WILL OPPOSE THE HATCHERY BEING CLOSED

Chamber Commerce To Take A Stand At Sacramento

PRES. EVERSOLE RIGHT

City Should Stand Up For Every Worthwhile Asset

At the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce President E. A. Eversole took up the matter of intention to move the fish hatchery on Cold creek and the situation will be discussed with the State Fish and Game Commission later at Sacramento.

Has Right Idea.

President Eversole is alive to the seriousness of the matter and said: "We not only do not intend, if we can prevent it, to see we do not lose any benefits we possess as a community, but we intend to see that, wherever possible, we add others." The sentiment of President Eversole is one that should be reflected by all others who wish to live in a progressing community.

BELOVED HEAD OF ORDER DEAD

Sister Albertina, Superior At Orphanage, Buried Today

The days of kindly ministration and charitable work of Sister Albertina, superior of Albertinum schools here, ended early Monday morning when God beckoned her and yesterday at a quiet funeral Sisters of the Convent and a few sincere friends laid Sister Albertina away to sleep forever.

Likely Suffered Stroke.

It was just a week ago Sister Albertina, who had been ill a number of months, sustained a fall which forced her complete retirement and from which she did not rally. It is thought the good Sister suffered a stroke, as after being stricken Sister Albertina did not speak or take nourishment.

A Native Of Illinois.

This morning at the Albertinum chapel funeral services conducted by Father Berchmans Cantillion will be held and following church rites the body will be taken to the Catholic cemetery where it will rest in the plot of the Sisters. Sister Albertina will be the first Sister to be buried in the section. Sister Albertina was born in Chicago and came, with her parents, to San Francisco 45 years ago. Deceased was about 69 years of age. Entering the religious order Sister Albertina devoted the balance of her life to the education of children. "HE WAS MY FRIEND"

THE FIRST OF THE YEAR the writer got a letter from Judge Frank H. Kerrigan. The note said "* * * this is the first letter I have written this year." There then followed some matters of private nature and then Frank Kerrigan said "* * * I have always tried to follow the high plane you outlined for me when I went on the bench."

The letter, unfortunately, went unanswered and the other day, while the writer was sick at home he read in city newspapers Federal Judge Frank H. Kerrigan was dead. A poem, the author of which the writer does not know, is, in the passing of Frank Kerrigan, applied most appropriately:

HE WAS MY FRIEND

His presence lingers still about the room,
His footsteps echo yet upon the floor,
His cheery smile still brightens all the gloom,
Though he has hurried out and shut the door
And, biding here today, I feel and know
Whatever way his footprints trend,
A little lapse of time and I shall go—
He was my Friend.

He softly hurried out and shut the door,
And all my soul with bitter anguish shook;
I strive to pierce the darkness, o'er and o'er—
'Tis not for us to know the way he took.
Yet, biding here below, I can but pray,
That blue and kindly skies above him bend,
For whither he has journeyed I shall go—
He was my Friend.

A little lapse of time and then—and then
The outer door again shall open wide,
And I shall leave the busy haunts of men
To overtake him—journey at his side.
And biding here in grief I can but pray
Whatever fate it pleases God to send,
Oh, let me clasp his hand again some day—
He was my Friend.

STRANGE OBSTACLES

IS A MAN OR WOMAN whose skin is dark less entitled to the benefits of whatever old-age pension plan the government may adopt than fellow Americans whose skin is white? queries The Santa Cruz News.

This question is asked in view of two news stories from Washington appearing in the San Francisco morning papers one day last week. One is signed by John O'Donnell, well-known Chicago Tribune correspondent, and is relayed to The Chronicle. Read this paragraph:

"Every southern congressman was asked today to consider the economic result of paying $200 a month to every colored person in his district over 60. It was driven home to each one the Townsend act would be administered by federal agents and the state or county authorities would be prohibited from drawing any color line and that $200 dropped each month into a Mississippi or Georgia cabin would be sufficient to feed a score of mouths, hence raising the scale of colored farm and factory help."

Advocates of the Townsend bill admitted the impossibility of obtaining enough votes to force the bill from committee to the floor of the house.

AT ANY PRICE

OUT OF FLEMINGTON comes a story that from the night of March 1, 1932, until the present day the Lindbergh case has cost the government and the various agencies engaged in tracking down the perpetrator more than $600,000. Including the $50,000 ransom he paid—of which he will receive back nearly $15,000 found in Bruno Richard Hauptman's garage—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has expended at least $75,000. His friend, Col. Henry C. Breckenridge, has paid out another $10,000. The efforts to run down false clues, such as those presented in the John Hughes Curtis hoax, cost at least $15,000. The government, including the three branches, federal, state and New York City, had 28 workers on the case for 30 months at an expense estimated at $284,000.

A conservative estimate of the various costs would show approximately the following figures:

Cost to Lindbergh	$ 75,000
Cost to Breckenridge	10,000
Cost to police	284,000
Telephones, telegrams	20,000
Trips to Europe	5,000
Cost of experts	50,000
Cost of wood expert	10,000
Federal expenditures	75,000
Cost of trial	100,000
Total	$629,000

It was worth it.

The second telegram to which reference is made is found in The Examiner, dated Washington, and reads:

"Racial prejudice against the Negro will prevent enactment of President Roosevelt's old age security program in the South, the senate finance committee was told today. The statement was made by Charles K. Houston, president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, who asked that old age security funds in southern states be furnished by the government only.

"It would be political suicide," he said, "for us to advocate a state old age pension plan in the south. The present law requires state laws to be passed and no southern state would pass a law permitting payment to colored people in any large degree.'

It will be borne in mind that President Roosevelt's plan calls for the state's matching the monthly payments from the national treasury.

Truly southern statesmanship is not of a very broad character if, because an old man or an old woman happens to be black, it would withhold from aged folks a pension a white person was receiving. Kindness and charity should be distributed unselfishly.

At times, when one stops to look at humanity one cannot help but pity it.

The Unity Club met Saturday at the home of Mrs. J. A. Heetebry with Mrs. Heetebry and Mrs. Henry Nunn as hostesses. Following the business session Mrs. J. H. Decater gave a very interesting book review taking "The Friendly Way," by Edgar A. Guest, as her subject, and reading a choice selection of poems that were greatly enjoyed. Delicious refreshments served by the hostesses completed a pleasant afternoon. The next club meeting will be held March 2 at the home of Mrs. I. C. Burke. It will be a "Silver Tea" at 25 cents and a playlet will be given under direction of Miss Brown. Guests are welcome.

for questioning. In the group was Byron Tillotson, 26, who figured in the fatal beating of P. D. Eckman, local contractor, a year ago. Byron Tillotson was acquitted by a jury when tried for the Eckman murder.

Girls Were Quizzed.

Others grilled included Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Quinn, who were with Pedro Luna and Leroy Duncan; Francis Maze, 18, driver of the car in which Charlie Manuel rode to his death; Joe Monzaga, owner of the car who claimed he left the party hours before the killing; Florence Miller, Merle Wilsey, Russell Elliott and Elmer Luna, brother of Pedro. Two other Indian girls, Julia Bennett and Louise Waltham were to be questioned as a result of conflicting stories of Elmer Luna and Francis Maze. Elmer Luna claimed the Bennet girl was not present, while Francis Maze denied the Waltham girl was in the car.

It is believed Louise Waltham is a Ukiah Valley Indian girl.

Fighting Was Admitted.

Members of the party finally admitted Duncan had become irked at Leroy Manuel's refusal to buy more wine for the party and had challenged the older man to fight. Francis Maze stopped the car and the two got out and walked down the road a short distance. Blows were struck and Leroy Duncan finally returned and climbed back into the car, according to the story pieced together by officers.

Left To Sober Up.

Leroy Duncan insisted Charlie Manuel was still on his feet, but that he decided to leave him there to sober up when he went back to the automobile.

Lesser Charge Likely.

Meanwhile Deputy Coroner Frank Welti notified officers a broken neck appeared to have been the cause of Charles Manuel's death. Possibility this was suffered when he fell into the ditch was seen. For this reason, District Attorney Cowan hinted, a charge of manslaughter may be filed against Leroy Duncan instead of a formal murder count.

TO HAVE EXHIBIT

An exhibit of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway district will be maintained at the Cloverdale Citrus Fair and Jack Crawford of this city will be in charge of it.

Clarence Frechette, the man who admits he hauled the body of a man he killed more than 2000 miles across the country, says he believes his reputation will save him from punishment. In addition to fatally shooting his employer, Mr. Frechette told about robbing several business places with a gun in order to get money for traveling expenses.

Expecting such a reputation to save him, regardless of what his earlier life may have been, provides a fair index to his mental caliber. Like most of the other criminals running away from the law, Clarence Frechette is just plain dumb——

At Arley, England, a "dead" man has returned to life and health with a very satisfying impression of the next world. John Puckering, a market gardener, was restored to life on the operating table. Doctors certify he was dead four and a half minutes. One of them massaged his heart—"more from a sense of duty than with any hope"—and Mr. Puckering is now back at his work, and apparently in normal health. The old gardener is sorry this surgery worked. He says: "What I saw during my brief spell of death has made me regret I ever came back. I was surrounded by thousands of people, all supremely happy, and among them were three I knew. They nodded and smiled, so happily I was overjoyed to be dead. The grave has no terrors for me now."

"Oh, death, where is thy sting," a query made ages ago, never has been answered and, likely, never will——

UNIQUE RACE—$1,500 A DAY IS THE PRIZE

Bridge Directors Will Give Bonus To Cut Span Opening

TO MAKE A TIDY SUM

Steel Corporation's Crews May Earn A $2250 Day Plum

(By Stuart B. Dunbar)

One of the most spectacular races the world ever has known is under way out in the Golden Gate, 1100 feet off historic Fort Winfield Scott, where the construction of the south tower of the Golden Gate bridge was started February 1.

They Keep At It.

Sometimes shrouded in fog—always harassed by wind and tide—the racers are plugging doggedly ahead. They are the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District and the McClintic-Marshal corporation, contractors for the steel superstructure of the world's greatest single span suspension bridge. The strange feature of this race is that if one loses both lose and if one wins both will benefit.

What Stake Is.

In reality the McClintic-Marshal corporation is racing against time. The engineers' schedule calls for the completion of the tower by September 1. For each day up to 60 days the contractor is able to save over this date he will receive a bonus of $1500. If more than 60 days are saved there will be an additional bonus of $750 a day over the first $1500.

An Earlier Opening.

Completion of the tower earlier than the scheduled date will mean that the Golden Gate bridge will be open to traffic ahead of the present schedule, which sets the opening date as May 1, 1937. This means that for every day saved the bridge will be paying its own way through the income derived from tolls paid by users. Thus the interest on bonded indebtedness will be cared for out of the bridge's earnings and the district will win by a substantial margin through losing to the contractors in the tower race.

Progress Is Fast.

In his report to be filed today for the board of directors Chief Engineer Joseph B. Strauss states that during the 17 preceding days of February more than 4500 tons of steel have been erected on the south tower. The traveler erector is now in its third position about 120 feet above the pier surface and the tower legs have reached an elevation of 200 feet, close to the deck level of the bridge.

Many Are Riveting.

Twelve riveting gangs are at work on the tower and are keeping up an average of approximately 3600 rivets a day.

They Will Win.

That the contractors will prove winners in the race is indicated by the fact that virtually all the steel for the San Francisco tower has been fabricated. Approximately 25,815,000 pounds of structural steel has been delivered at the local storage plant of the contractor or is in transit from the fabricating plants in the east.

Other Units Satisfactory.

Work on the San Francisco cable housing is progressing rapidly. The structure is now concreted to an elevation of 50 feet, which includes piers for the approach spans. Pylon S-2, south of Fort Scott, has been concreted to an elevation of 106 feet on both shafts, having reached the point where the cables will pass through this structure.

Preparing Anchorage Housing.

On the Marin side of the Golden Gate nearly a quarter of a million dollars is to be spent within the next few months. The contractor is overhauling equipment preparatory to commencing work on the anchorage housing between the main anchor blocks and pylon S-1. Preliminary work for the cable contractor on the top strut of the Marin tower is virtually completed.

Cable Half Done.

In the Trenton, New Jersey, plant of the John A. Roeblings Sons company, cable contractors, approximately 59 per cent of the cable wire, or 12,577 tons, has been accepted and stored. Shortly this wire will commence moving to the company's California plant recently established near the State Nautical School on the upper bay shore in Marin county.

Are Making Tests.

In order to determine the most satisfactory coating to protect the cable wire during its shipment through the Panama canal and tropical waters, a trial shipment was dispatched here from Roeblings eastern plant, arriving last week. In this shipment six different materials were applied to the coils of wire. Some were wrapped in paper and others coated with various waxes and greases. Upon their arrival here samples were taken and carefully wrapped in cotton batting and then shipped back by express to the eastern mills for chemical analysis. Upon the results of the findings of the labarotary the final determination of the proper protective coating for cable shipment will be made.

One Thousand Men Working.

During the past week, according to Chief Engineer Strauss, employment on the Golden Gate Bridge has been stepped up with an average of 1000 men per day employed on the project in the San Francisco bay area.

EVIDENCE IS CARRIED OFF

Judge G. R. Redwine Outwitted When A Thief Works

(The Round Valley Record)

Thursday morning Constable Harry Newberg took Clarence Picou to Ukiah where he is being held on a charge of stealing cured meat from Mrs. Edith Walter.

Locked Up Evidence Gone.

At a preliminary hearing in Judge G. R. Redwine's court the meat, which had been located in the home of Frank Picou, a brother, was produced as evidence and locked in the Judge's office for safekeeping until date of trial. Friday morning when Judge Redwine opened his office he found a burglar had entered through the back way and had carried away all the meat.

They Went Away.

Between dark Friday and daylight Saturday Frank Picou, wife and baby packed their belongings and departed for parts unknown, without leaving a forwarding address. Saturday, while fishing in Town Creek, near his home, George Gravier discovered a portion of the meat in the creek. He notified Judge Redwine and a further search located more of the meat farther up the creek.

BACK AT WORK

Mrs. Inez Walsh, a member of the staff at the Talmage hospital, returned to Talmage last week, following her recent operation at Howard Memorial Hospital, Willits. She is recuperating nicely.

LOCAL RAINFALL

According to the measurements in the rain gauge of Ed. Hyden the rainfall so far this season has reached 23.27. At this time a year ago the rainfall was 18.64.

SAILORS WERE IN A BAD WAY

Boat Overturned In Mendocino Bay In Recent Storm

(The Mendocino Beacon)

The boat crew of the steamer Noyo had one of those unpleasant experiences Thursday that attend those who go down to the sea in ships.

Boat Was Upset.

With a rather nasty sea running Thursday afternoon, the boat crew left the steamer in a dory to take the lines out to the buoys to tie the ship up. Caught by a wave, the boat overturned, and the crew was in serious danger for a time. One man got on the overtuned boat and the others finally joined him and managed to right the craft. Watchers on shore were fearful for a time that one of the men would be drowned. The steamer cast anchor.

Took Out Lumber.

The Noyo loaded late Thursday evening, taking on a cargo of some 300,000 feet of lumber.

HAD PETALUMA GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. D. Crinelli entertained a number of out-of-town guests at their home on McPeak street Sunday, among them being Mr. and Mrs. Marion Ward and Mr. Ward's father, of Petaluma.

JOHN WIPF IS MATCH WINNER

Dreamland Fans See Fast Bout—Another For Next Week

At Dreamland auditorium Friday evening a capacity house watched John Wipf, of Potter valley, easily handle Jerry Monahan, of Santa Rosa, who came touted as being a real man-killer.

He Is Clever.

There is no getting away from the fact John Wipf, under the coaching of Paul W. Poulos, retired light-middleweight champion of the Pacific Coast, has developed into one of the most clever wrestlers of the country. Monahan weighed 233 while Wipf scaled 218.

Plenty Of Action.

From start to conclusion it was a real bout, the first fall going to Monahan in 13 minutes. This fall was of a doubtful kind, but escaped the referee. Seventeen minutes later Wipf worked his "iron clamp" and got a fall and about 13 minutes after the final struggle began Wipf got another "iron clamp" on the unfortunite Monahan and won the match.

Wrestlers Tonight.

In Santa Rosa tonight John Wipf takes on Dean Detton, of Salt Lake.

Another Card Coming.

Next week at Dreamland Promoter Sol Cohen will put on another exhibition and fans are told in advance the attractions will equal those of last week.

IS VERY ILL

Everyone hereabouts will read with regret B. L. Cleland, who has been sick some time, is not improving as satisfactorily as friends had hoped and that Mr. Cleland continues at his home in a very serious condition.

W. M. Melville, of Branscomb, was a business visitor in Ukiah last Friday.

Stuart B. Dunbar Knows His Duties

There is no more capable publicity executive and newspaperman in California than Stuart B. Dunbar. He is in charge of the publicity for the Redwood Empire Association and is also occupying the same position for the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway district. Mr. Dunbar is here today to handle the publicity for the gathering of the committees of the Redwood Empire Association and, in advance, it can be taken for granted the work will be done in a finished manner.

Promoters Barring Potter Valley Man

Paul W. Poulos and John Wipf motored to San Francisco yesterday, going in an endeavor to get a line on possible chances for John Wipf to break into the wrestling game in San Francisco. For some unknown reason the Potter Valley grappler is being barred from the arena in the city, although he is known to be one of the best men in the mat game on the Pacific Coast.

Receives News Of Death Of Father

Bert Cole, of this city, last week received a telegram announcing the death of his father in Grand Rapids, Mich. Deceased was 95 years of age. Mr. Cole served in the Union Army during the Civil war, enlisting with the Twenty-third Michigan Volunteers. The first of February Mr. and Mrs. Cole celebrated their sixty-ninth wedding anniversary.

CONTINUES LOW

Mrs. Lois Sabin, who has been quite sick during the winter, is reported not so well and a nurse is attending her.

FACING OPERATION

C. A. Bernhard is at home quite sick and may have to undergo a delicate operation shortly.

Ranges Reported In Fine Condition

John Rose, who for years has been ranching in the vicinity of Farley and is certainly in a position to know what he is talking about, is authority for the statement he has never seen range feed as luxuriant in his part of the county, and what is true of Farley is equally true of all other sections of Mendocino county, as it now is.

Jim Hurt was a local visitor down from Covelo Saturday.

Brother Of Ukiahan Passes Friday Last

M. B. Hyden, brother of Ed. Hyden of this city, passed away in Veteran's Memorial Hospital, San Francisco, Friday last, a victim of exposures and injuries sustained in the war. Mr. Hyden was a Veteran of Foreign Wars and the funeral was held under the auspices of that organization.

Mrs. M. B. Gibson was in town Friday from Talmage visiting with friends.

David A. Torres made a trip here last week from San Francisco to thank A. R. O'Brien who, during the illness of his father, the late Alfred Torres, one of the direct descendants of the last Spanish Dons who ruled northern California, had been befriended by Mr. O'Brien.

WARD-McCARTHY WEDDING AT SAINT MARY'S

The marriage of Miss Eva May Ward to Edward Thomas McCarthy was solemnized Thursday morning at St. Mary's Catholic church. The altar, beautifully decorated with jonquils and ferns, acacia and pink snapdragons, was the setting for the ceremony, read at nine o'clock by Father Berchmans Cantillon during the Nuptial Mass.

The bride, attractively gowned in a pink lace dress with long sleeves, carried a small pink satin prayer book with ribbon streamers and lilies of the valley. The wedding veil, of pink net, fell from a cap of silver lace. The whole effect was in perfect keeping with the sentiment of St. Valentine's Day.

The bride was given in marriage by Walter Thomas, a friend of the family for many years.

Miss Mary McCarthy, sister of the groom, attended the bride. She made a charming picture in yellow taffeta with a close-fitting white satin hat, carrying an old fashioned bouquet of jonquils and gardenias.

Frank McCarthy, of Chicago, brother of the groom, who made the trip west for the wedding, was best man and Dr. J. J. Kirwin acted as usher.

During the ceremony Miss Ida Locatelli sang "Ave Maria," "Thee Will I Love Forever," "Santa Maria" and "Adora to O Panis Coelice."

Pink and yellow, the color scheme of the wedding, was carried out in the decorations at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Isnard, where the wedding breakfast was held. Snapdragons and pink candles decorated the bride's table. Mr. and Mrs. McCarthy left for Yosemite Valley immediately following the breakfast, where they will pass their honeymoon. On their return to Ukiah they will make their home on South State street.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Ward, of Washington and came to Ukiah from that state several years ago and since arrival here has made many friends by her charming manner. She is an unusually beautiful girl. Mr. McCarthy is a son of Mrs. Ellen McCarthy and brother of Mrs. John Isnard and Miss Mary McCarthy, of Ukiah. He was born in Chicago and is a graduate of Cathedral high school, Indianapolis, and Notre Dame University, South Bend. Knute Rockne, the idolized college coach, was at Notre Dame the full four years Mr. McCarthy was at the institution. Mr. McCarthy took his degree in electrical engineering. He is engaged in business in Ukiah.

CLUB WOMEN TOLD OF AMERICANISM

Saturday afternoon found members of the Saturday Afternoon Club in regular session with Mrs. Louise Bernhard, president of the club, presiding at the business meeting.

Following the routine business, Miss Grace Toles, chairman of the program committee, presented Miss Elizabeth Squires and Mrs. Ada Romer, who played a piano duet.

Miss Toles then introduced Superintendent of Schools J. W. Taylor who in a very pleasing manner presented his friend, John Harman, of Fort Bragg. Mr. Harman, a student of Hastings Law School in San Francisco, gave the members of the club an exceptionally fine address on "American Citizenship." Coming at the season of the year when America is celebrating the anniversaries of two great Americans, this patriotic talk met with a great deal of enthusiasm and the club was fortunate in being able to secure such an interesting speaker.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. E. Reynolds, Miss Dorothy Giles, Mrs. Franz Grothe, Mrs. Minnie Jamison and Mrs. Hale McCowen, Sr. These ladies had arranged beautifully decorated refreshment tables, at which the members of the club enjoyed a pleasant social hour.

The center decoration of jonquils, lavender stock, violets and roses was exceptionally attractive. At the business meeting Dr. R. B. Toller, of the Mendocino State Hospital staff, was elected president of the association for the year, and Dr. J. J. Kirwin was named secretary-treasurer. Can you stand just one little spoonful of facts and figures? It will be a bitter dose, if you stop to think about it, however, Doctor Nature says take it, or the dose will be 10 times as large and far more bitter when your children have to swallow it.

What Is Happening.

Erosion is taking the equivalent of all the good soil in the state of Rhode Island out of the country every year. Every four years the Mississippi river alone dumps enough good rich earth into the Gulf of Mexico to cover Rhode Island four feet deep; or in other words 1250 good, rich, 160-acre farms go floating down and out out into the ocean—and are gone forever. Men are digging reservoids to hold water, but erosion laughs at them. In 20 years many of today's reservoirs will be useless for the storing of water because of silting, and the grandchildren of your own grandchildren will find that erosion has completely nullified all the effort that this generation has put into the grandest attempt ever made to conserve water — the Boulder Dam, with its mammoth storage capacity of over 30 billion acre feet of water, that is if man doesn't do something to protect the watershed above the dam.

The Work Goes On.

Good men have robbed their children—let's see if that is a true statement of facts. Nature takes millions of years to tear down a mountain and fill a valley. Laboriously, inch by inch, century after century, she works grinding the rocks into dust and mixing the fine soil with decayed plant and animal life. Ten thousand years are consumed in building up just one foot of that rich productive top soil that our pioneer forefathers found so fertile. This good earth we farm today is the product of the ages, and by every right should be the heritage of the ages—yet good men turn rich fertile fields into barren, lifeless, bankrupt farms in one generation. Good men most surely have unknowingly robbed their children.

The Truth Of It.

They say, "It's farmed out," but it isn't farmed out—it's washed out. The fertile top soil has been washed away by the uncontrolled rains, or carried away by the wind . Thoughtless exploitation of the land has plugged the natural channels and crevices in the soil that was meant by nature to convey the rains down into the depths. The earth has been plowed up, pulverized and robbed of its sheath of protecting roots and grass so that the rains carry it away a million tons at a time, to be mixed with salt on the ocean floor.

What Result Was.

The result? Seventy-five bushel-an-acre corn land has been reduced to 17-bushel-an-acre land. Isn't that robbing our children who have to raise corn for the next generation? Eleven cows to an acre of grazing land has been reduced to two cows to an acre land — and how about that youngster of yours who wants to be a T-bone manufacturer when he gets big? It means that 10 tons of fertilizer on an acre will not make it produce the cotton, or the oranges, or the beans that the raw land would when first men turned it with a plow . These things are true. Why? There's only one answer—man-induced soil erosion has robbed the land of its most precious possession — the top soil.

Told What To Do.

Horace Greeley is remembered for his wisecrack "Go west, young man," more than he is for many finer things he said in his life. It was good advice back in the seventies, when there were rich prairies waiting for the pioneer to string out his oxen and turn a furrow across the fenceless plain, but where, oh where, is the young man to go today? That is the catch. He isn't going anywhere, because practically all of the good land is taken up. When Horace gave his well-meant advice men could afford to waste the life of a piece of land in a few years ,and tens of thousands of them did. The remedy then was to coax their family into a covered wagon, call the dogs and start westward. Six months later they could be sole owners of a sod house and fields of belly-deep grain that stretched far away toward the horizon, but "them days" are gone forever.

He Is Satisfied.

Today the farmer who has a good farm is perfectly willing to stay put, and if anybody talks about his moving it is usually the banker or the sheriff. That very same thief that came with the rain and caused the farmers of the seventies to take Greeley's advice and "Go West" is working away at stealing the soil today, and it's up to the man on the land to take care of it or he's liable to find that he's headed for the poorhouse instead of out west as his forefathers did.

Where Relief Lies.

Do you live in a section where erosion is robbing the land? This paper was asked to print these articles because a survey has shown Mendocino county is dangerously affected by the work of this man-made thief of the soil. Who proposes to do what about it? The Federal government has caused to be formed the United States Soil Erosion Service, which, under the direction of H. H. Bennett, has established 32 demonstrational projects in 21 states. These projects are designed to show the agriculturist how he can stop soil wastage, without materially lessening the income from his land.

Are Making Tests.

There are at present three such demonstrations under way in California, one being in the Las Posas area of Ventura county; one near Corralitos, in Santa Cruz county; one at Arroya Grande, in San Luis Obispo county. These sites were selected because of the aggravated condition of the problem and because of their availability to the agriculturists whose land is dangerously affected. At these locations the soil experts, the agronomists, and the engineers are meeting with the farmers and together they are working out ways and means of saving America's most valuable asset for the future generations. This is the second of a series of articles written for The Republican Press by Harry E. Reddick, regional director of the U. S. Soil Erosion Service of California. In the next article Mr. Reddick, who has specialized in agricultural engineering on California farms for over 15 years, will give us a closer look at the problem and see if we can fit the remedy to the all important pocketbook. "Fight or Starve" will be the title.

A CHANCE TO GET A BRIDGE IS BEFORE US

One Of The Spans We Got From Sonoma Is Available

IS NEEDED AT POTTER

Coast Supervisors In Mood To Help Out The Valley

Preparatory to dissolving Joint Highway District No. 19, under which the new Monte Rio bridge across Russian river was constructed, officers of the district met in Santa Rosa Thursday.

Paid All Bills.

Final action necessary to closing the district was taken by the board of supervisors of Sonoma county in adoption of a resolution to pay the remainder of the county's share, amounting to $14,761.60. Following this action the board of supervisors closed its day's session and the highway district board started its final deliberations.

Mendocino Benefitted.

The bridge cost a grand total of $127,229.66, the report of District Engineer J. B. Platt and H. A. Postelthwaite, legal representative, indicated last week. Of this Sonoma county paid $78,600 as its share, with Mendocino county meeting something like $15,000 of the outlay. In return Mendocino county got four steel bridges whose value ran to about $4,000 each and, in addition, assisted in providing another direct route into Mendocino county.

We Can Get Bridge.

It is not at all unlikely that, if proper activity is manifested on the part of Ukiah and Potter Valley, it can be arranged to have one of the fine bridges, which at the present time is in storage, brought to Potter Valley and put up. The other day Supervisor Charles R. Perkins, whose foresight in getting roads into Mendocino county, largely resulted in the county taking the action it did and joining the joint highway district, said he would like, very much, to see this side of the county get one of the bridges and, from what Supervisor Perkins said, although he did not attempt to speak for Supervisor Gordon, it was taken for granted Supervisor Gordon would be glad to vote to bring the bridge here.

Stand Mr. Gordon Takes.

Not long ago Supervisor Gordon said to The Republican Press: "The sooner people get over the idea a supervisor can get anywhere for his own district, or for the county, by voting selfishly for his part of the district to the exclusion of the other sections, the sooner we are going to start getting somewhere. Naturally, as a coast man, I want coast interests protected, but in the broader sense I am for the whole county all the time to the exclusion of spotted interests." From the above it would appear little trouble would be had in inducing Supervisor Gordon to help Potter Valley get the span.

United Work Required.

The Press suggests the local chamber of commerce and Potter Valley people go before the board of supervisors at its next meeting and see what can be done. Eel river is a county-wide assist and of sportsmen from all over northern California for that matter and a good bridge is something that will appeal to everyone.

ORANGES AND SMILES

And why not? Miss Tove Larsen, left, and Florence Peterson, right, are gathering luscious fruit for the annual Cloverdale Citrus Fair which opens Thursday and runs four days. It's a joyous Redwood Empire event and opens the 1935 California fair season.

Local Male Catholics Organized At A Meeting Held On Monday Night

Plans for the immediate and vigorous organization of the Catholic man-power of North America in a widespread mobilization for Catholic action by the Knights of Columbus order and its 700,000 members are being carried into California this week. Twenty-six areas have been created in the United States and Canada. Joseph O'Connor, of San Francisco, has been named area campaign director for northern California and Nevada. Monday night in St. Mary's parish hall the Catholic men of the Ukiah valley rallied to an appeal for vigorous Catholic action. A provisional committee was appointed to draw up plans for future activities. The first meeting of the new committee will be held at eight o'clock, Monday evening, February 25. At this meeting field workers will be appointed whose duty it will be to enlist the Catholic men and boys of the outlying districts of the valley.

Vangelo Domenicale, Domenica di 24 Febbraio. Del Sancto Vangelo Scritto da San Luca (c. viii v. 4-18).

E radunandosi e accorrendo a lui d'ogni citta gran folla, disse per parabola: Ando il seminatore a seminare la sua semenza; e nel seminarla parte cadde lungo la strade e fu calpestate, e gli uccelli dell'aria la divorarono; parte cadde sul sasso e, appena nata, si secco perche non aveva umore; parte cadde tra le spine, e la spine, cresciute insieme, la soffocareno; il resto poi cadde su buon terreno e, cresciuto, frutto il cento per uno.

Detto questo, esclamo: Chi ha orecchi da intendre, intenda.

La Significazione. La semenga e la parola di Dio. Quelli lungo tano; e poi viene il diavolo e porta via la parola dal loro cuore, affinche non si salvino col credere. Quelli poi sul sasso son coloro i quali, udita la parola, l'accolgono con allegrezza; essi pero non hanna radice; credono infatti per un certo tempo, ma al momento della tentazione si tirano indietro. Semenza caduta tra la spine son coloro che hanno a ascoltato; ma a lungo andare restano soffocati da cure, da ricchezze e da piaceri della vita e non arrivano a maturita. Quella poi in buon terrano son coloro che in cuore buono e perfetto ritengono la parola ascoltata e perseverando, danno frutto.

HEART ATTACK PROVED FATAL

Redwood Valley Farmer Succumbs In Few Hours

Special Correspondence of The Press

REDWOOD VALLEY, Feb. 19.—A number of representatives from Lake and Mendocino counties attended the Mendo-Lake Council of Parents and Teachers Wednesday at the school auditorium. Mrs. D. McMillan, who is chairman of the council, opened the business session at 10:30 a. m.

Charming Table Settings.

At 12 o'clock the ladies gathered at Grange Hall where a hostess luncheon was served. The colorful table was achieved by use of Chinese lilies and fernery. Little nut cups and red hearts carried further the decoration in suggestion of St. Valentine.

The Afternoon Program.

Following luncheon the company adjourned to the schoolhouse where an afternoon program was featured. Mrs. Jerome Cross, president of the Fourteenth District, was principal speaker. Mrs. J. Branson sang, in her lovely manner, "Out Where the West Begins" and "I Hear You Calling, Caroline." The session was concluded with a folk dance by the lower grades.

Funds Were Helped.

Friday evening the regular meeting of the R. V. P. T. A. took place at the school with Mrs. C. Smith presiding. Founder's day was observed by a candle lighting ceremony with a beautifully decorated cake, the work of Mrs. R. Yarbrough. A birthday gift was made, by means of a small fee charged for refreshments, for the extension of work, the field service being almost entirely financed from this source.

Program Features.

Mrs. Branson sang two solos, accompanied by Harry Reilly. J. W. Taylor, county superintendent of schools, addressed the organization on social and mental hygiene. His talk was exceptionally fine.

Now A Mississippian.

Word has been received from Percy Letts, who left some time ago for the Gulf states, he has bought 160 acres of land at Gulfport, Mississippi. Enroute south he went to Yosemite Valley and to Boulder Dam. Mr. Letts made the trip overland in his car and encountered some extremely cold weather. He went as far as Florida but decided to locate in Mississippi. He plans to raise certain kinds of nuts used in making dye.

Working In City.

Miss Erla Yarbrough has accepted a position as stenographer for Cluett Peabody & Co., on Second and Mission streets, San Francisco. Miss Yarbrough had been studying at Heald's Business College, Oakland, but transferred her credits to Heald's College in San Francisco where she will complete the course by attending evening school.

Clearing Done Rapidly.

A. Kauhanen has recently purchased a new Cletrac tractor. He, with his crew of men who are clearing eight acres of land for T. S. Van Vleet, are making rapid progress with the tractor, which is used for pulling stumps.

To Put Out Grapes.

Mr. Van Vleet plans to put this acreage in white grapes.

To Handle Boys.

H. Reilly has resumed leadership of the Boys 4-H Club after a vacation of four months. The first meeting with the boys was held Friday evening at the club house. There was an enrollment of 14. L. S. Roberts will assist Mr. Reilly in the work.

Soon To Start.

The Girls' 4-H Club will start the year's projects in March.

Miss Rose Eckhardt came up from San Francisco Saturday to look over her property interests near Laughlin.

Improving Home.

Mrs. H. E. Lieurance, of Santa Rosa, was visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Rex E. Lieurance several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Burkheim are having the exterior of their house shingled and a shower installed.

Both Had Mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Tweedy have been victims of mumps. Mr. Tweedy's parents, of Los Angeles, are here caring for the patients. Mr. Tweedy is able to be around again, but Mrs. Tweedy is still very ill.

A. B. Newall Passes.

The community has been saddened by the death of A. B. Newall, of Calpella, which came suddenly Thursday evening from an illness only lasting an hour. Mr. Newall was a man of sterling qualities and was held in high esteem; his unusually happy, cheerful manner endeared him to the hearts of all with whom he came in contact. He will be greatly missed and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to the bereaved family. The funeral was from Eversole's Mortuary and burial was in the Ukiah cemetery.

Going To Willits.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Gunderson are moving to Willits on account of Mrs. Gunderson's health. She is afflicted with asthma and heart trouble which makes it necessary for her to be near her physician, Dr. R. Babcock.

Local Boy Makes A High Average

George Butler, former Ukiah high school student and now enrolled at Santa Rosa Junior College, became eligible for membership in Alpha Gamma Sigma, Junior College honor society, as a result of his high scholarship average during the fall semester. George Butler was one of 43 students qualifying, it was reported.

TO GREET VOYAGER

John Larsen who has been on an extended visit to his old home in Denmark will arrive in San Francisco February 25 and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Archer will greet Mr. Larsen when he disembarks. Mrs. Archer is a daughter of Mr. Larsen.

SAW THEM SETTLED

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Garavanta accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Will Collier when the latter went to Willits last week to establish their home there.

GIVEN PROBATION

Frank Robinson, the colored man who was involved in the killing of a heifer belonging to Raymond Ornbaun, of the Boonville road, was given probation last week but required to pay court costs and 25.00 to Mr. Ornbaun for his calf.

Great Organization Work Done By Body

Clyde Edmundson, manager of the Redwood Empire Association, was one of the advance guard of the big organization seen here today. Under Mr. Edmundson's management the Redwood Empire Association has become one of the most powerful bodies in the state and, largely due to the excellent management under Mr. Edmundson, the Association holds the respect and commands the support of all of the civic bodies of northern California.

GETTING ON NICELY

Mrs. "Dick" White, wife of the popular member of the Mendocino County Traffic Squad, who was operated on last week at Howard Memorial Hospital, Willits, by Dr. Raymond Babcock, is recovering satisfactorily, word from the northern community yesterday was.

WENT TO COVELO

Farm Advisor C. S. Myszka was in Covelo looking after some business matters connected with his office Thursday.

Few Itinerants Are Being Reported Now

Chief of Police W. F. Ornbaun says fewer itinerants are encountered by the police in the jungles and on the streets at this time than a year ago. Chief Ornbaun thinks this is probably due to the fact communities are handling their unemployed conditions better than they did and that, also, times are undoubtedly picking up, although it may be slowly.

IS IMPROVING

Mrs. Robert Anderson, who has been quite ill during the winter is much better.

A STATE AID FOR BUILDING FENCES IS UP

Plan To Keep Game Out Of Orchards-Fields Talked

WHAT THE THEORY IS

Effort To Get Government To Buy Material Seen

Again there has started a movement to try and have the state, and, if not the state, to induce the government to provide funds with which ranchers may erect deer-proof fences to preserve their crops from deer which now jump or knock down fences to forage.

The Idea Failed.

Down in Sonoma county it was revealed 13 deer fences were built under the former co-operative plan, farmers furnishing the labor and the state fund paying for the material. At the time the fences were built in Sonoma county with state aid, there were several farmers whose applications were granted but who were unable to furnish the labor.

Must Be Protected.

Ranchers who approve the idea in Mendocino county hold out for safeguards in the building plan so that the preliminary fence building here may take place in such sections of the county where the deer are doing and have done the most damage and urge a co-operative building plan but express doubt the state will furnish both labor and materials for constructing the fences needed. Fear is entertained that, if a fence building plan is inaugurated and discretion is not used in limiting locations where the fences are to be erected, the clamor will be so great, on the part of everyone who wants protection against deer, it will be impossible to effectively carry out the idea.

Redwood Empire Convention To Meet In Ukiah Tomorrow

(By Stuart B. Dunbar)

Everything is in readiness for the semi-annual "little convention" of the Redwood Empire Association to be held at Ukiah Thursday. Because of the matters of extreme importance to be cleared at the several sessions of the day indications are the meet will be marked by a record attendance.

The Day Outlined.

Commencing at 10 a. m. the morning will be given over to the annual meeting of the association's chambers of commerce

President M. Goldman, of the Redwood Empire Association, who will open the "little convention" at Ukiah Thursday morning.

unit, meeting of the events and celebrations committee and an interim session of the hotel-resort conference. The entire afternoon will be devoted to a joint inter-county highway conference called by the Redwood Empire supervisors' unit and the nine counties highways committee. President Gail Apperson ,of the supervisors unit, and Chairman Arthur E. Dalton, of the highways committee will preside. Of outstanding importance at this meeting will be the matter of setting up final definite plans of campaign to oppose bills calling for the diversion of gas tax funds when the state legislature reconvenes. Already one such bill is before the legislature. Its passage as a law, according to Supervisor Enzenauer and Mr. Dalton, would completely disrupt the state's highway program, curtailing highway construction of vital importance to the entire Redwood Empire area, including the main approach roads to the Golden Gate bridge.

The County Road Bill.

Other subjects that will be considered and acted upon at the meeting include the proposed acquisition by the state of all county roads, the proposed transfer to the state of a portion of the one cent gas tax money now given to counties, the proposed quarter cent allocation of gas tax revenues to cities and whether or not such allocation should be deducted from the state's share of gas tax revenues or from the one cent county allocation; the proposed levy of an additional one cent gas tax for general unemployment relief as recommended by the government. Representatives of every Redwood Empire county will be on hand at this meeting and it is anticipated that a thorough and general discussion of these matters will result in the adoption of a definite program to be carried out by the association in behalf of its constituents.

J. P. Kelly, of Sebastopol, president of the Redwood Empire Supervisors Unit. Mr. Kelly will preside at the annual meeting of his unit at Ukiah Thursday.

To Be In Charge.

President J. P. Kelly, of Sebastopol, will preside at the chambers of commerce unit meeting, at which plans will be set up for installation of an exhibit or provision will be made for other representation at the San Diego Exposition. The subject of the proposed exhibit at the State Fair in Sacramento as a joint inter-county Redwood Empire project and the installation of other exhibits in various parts of the Pacific Coast also will be determined upon.

Seek Longer Stops.

Members of the chambers of commerce unit will consider plans for prolonging stop-overs of tourists and vacationists brought to the various towns

Harry G. Ridgway, of San Rafael, who will preside at the meeting of the Events and celebrations committee of the Redwood Empire Association at Ukiah Thursday morning.

and communities as a direct result of the Redwood Empire Association's publicity and advertising schedule. General Chairman Harry G. Ridgway will preside at the meeting of the events

Thursday, tomorrow, in Ukiah when the events and celebration committee of the Redwood Empire Association assembles there will be brought together a large delegation of members of the organization from every part of the Redwood Empire.

Much To Discuss.

All of the sessions are to be held at The Palace Hotel and there will be various committee gatherings but, probably, most important of all, will be the one which has to deal with the handling of celebrations. To this committee will fall the task of seeing that all proper arrangements for a public observance of the completion of the Garberville unit in Humboldt county and the Highline unit in Del Norte county are properly provided for.

Bombing Base, Too.

The meeting, called by Harry G. Ridgway, of San Rafael, committee chairman, will be a feature of the Redwood Empire semi-annual convention. Other matters to be considered at the events and celebrations committee session will be those of co-operation with Marvelous Marin Inc. in arrangements for the formal dedication of Hamilton Field United States Army bombardment station, and plans for publicizing local events in the Redwood Empire area during the current year.

Want Co-Operation.

In the latter connection an effort will be made to prevail upon the various Redwood Empire communities to so arrange dates for events where they will be no conflict with events in other communities.

Committees To Meet.

Other meetings at the semi-annual convention will be those of the Redwood Empire Hotel-Resort Conference, called by President Leo Lebenbaum, of Eureka, and of the chambers of commerce unit, called by J. P. Kelly, of Sebastopol. The entire afternoon will be given over to an inter-county highway conference called jointly by the nine counties highways committee and the supervisors' unit.

Arthur E. Dalton, of Eureka, chairman of the Nine Counties Highways Committee of the Redwood Empire Association, who, with Supervisor Gail Apperson, of Marin county, will preside at the joint highway conference at Ukiah Thursday.

Supervisor Gail Apperson, of Marin county, president of the Redwood Empire Supervisors Unit, who, with Arthur E. Dalton, of Eureka, will preside at the joint highway conference at Ukiah Thursday afternoon.

Ernest L. Finley, of Santa Rosa, president of the Redwood Empire Newspaper Publishers Unit, who will take part in the association's semi-annual "little convention" at Ukiah Thursday and will preside at the annual meeting of his unit at Cloverdale the following day.

a joint affair in co-operation with local chambers of commerce and community groups.

To Help Bridge Fair.

The committee also will go into the subject of intensive co-operation with the 1938 exposition group in San Francisco now engaged in planning a world's fair commemorating completion of the Golden Gate bridge and the San Francisco-Oakland bridge.

Plan New Design.

The hotel-resort conference meeting, at which President Leo Lebenbaum will preside, will give consideration to the selection of a new official sign for use of highway enterprises subscribing to the association as listed in its folder and to plans for the new 1935 Hotel-Resort folder. Also there will be a round table discussion of technical problems of hotel and resort management and operation.

One-Type Sign.

A uniform design for the official emblem of wayside enterprises in the Redwood Empire will be decided upon at the meeting of a hotel-resort conference in Ukiah tomorrow. This is a splendid idea. The Redwood Empire should adopt such an emblem and should put other similar systems into effect to give this part of California distinction. Such hotel and resort emblems as are adopted should be typical of the country.

Peculiar Unto Itself.

The Redwood Empire has many peculiar attractions not found in any other part of the United States. This fact should be capitalized. The hotel and resort men, and all other enterprises that receive patronage from the traveling public have a great opportunity to get their heads together and promote many features which should work out to their mutual advantage.

What Will Result.

If the matter is approached in the right way, a system can be worked out to prolong stop-overs and keep our tourists in the Redwood Empire longer than they have stayed heretofore. The first step necessary to the success of such plans is a pledge of co-operation among all enterprises involved.

HEALDSBURG'S TEAM BEATEN

One-Sided Contest Is Carried Off On The Enemy's Court

Using a free shot as an incentive after five minutes of fruitless playing, the Ukiah A's defeated Healdsburg on the latter's court Saturday night 35 to 16. Once started the locals displayed a brand of basketball with which the opposition was unable to cope. Half time found the score 18 to 2. Ledeboer and Weatherhead turned in their usual fine game on offense, collecting 13 and 11 points respectively. Beebe with five, Rawles with four, and Ford and Ivey with one each made up the remainder of the points while Peterson garnered eight for his team. "Buck" Ford was the mainstay in the locals' airtight defense. The second string saw action for the last quarter and kept the situation well in hand.

B Team Lost.

In the preliminary, the Ukiah B team was defeated by Healdsburg in a slow, uninteresting game. Davis and Kinsler led the scoring for the locals with four points each, while Ashton was the only member of the Ukiah squad who turned in a standard performance. The final score was 37 to 15, Pavioni making 15 points for the winners.

Go To Willits.

Friday the Ukiah A, B and C squads journey to Willits for three league games. Everyone is waiting for the outcome of the A and B games as a win will mean Fort Bragg and——disaster or championship!

Beat Potter Valley.

Last Friday in the local gymnasium, Potter Valley was defeated by Ukiah in two league games. In the C engagement the final score was 21 to 5. In the A game, the Ukiah second string won out by a 28 to 7 score.

Pair Celebrated Their Birthdays

Bill Would Make The Prisoners Work

(Senator H. W. Slater in The Santa Rosa Press-Democrat)

Then there is a bill which would provide for county jail prisoners being required to work on public highways for which purpose two or more counties may join. It is proposed to maintain joint county road camps. This idea comes from Senator George Biggar, of Covelo, who also favors state control of all roads.
